

World Aquatic Development Conference

Learn to Swim

14 -15 of January 2012, Lund, Sweden

We are happy to welcome you to the first World Aquatic Development Conference in Lund, Sweden from 12 – 15 January 2012, and the track Learn to Swim. The newly started Swedish Aquatic Research Center (SCAR) is the organizer of the conference. We have four different tracks, which include learn to swim, competitive swimming, rehabilitation, and women's sport.

This will be a thought provocative and interesting two days for all participants where we have the top names of "Learn to swim" bring you new ideas and concepts for teaching water skills.

Conference fee

Sign up before 15th December: 2495 SEK

Sign-up after 15th December: 2995 SEK

This includes:

- 2 days conference with some of the world's best coaches/lectures in "learn to swim".
- Lunch both days
- Coffee breaks
- Conference material

For more information and sign-up visit

www.sweaquatics.com

Email: office@sweaquatics.com

Phone: +46 (0) 70 34 05 888

SPEAKERS

William "Bill" Boomer

Bill was the head coach of the men's swim team at the University of Rochester from 1962 to 1990. Beginning in the early 1990s, Boomer was a technical consultant to five time Olympic coach Richard Quick at Stanford University swim team and has worked one-on-one with many world-class swimmers their coaches. Boomer was a technical advisor to the 1996, 2000, and 2004 USA Olympic teams.

Milton Nelms

Milton is a leading expert and innovator in cutting edge swimming technique in the world today. He designs programming for athlete development and the teaching of swim technique. Milt's work is recognized as one of the top 25 most significant contributions to USA Swimming for the last quarter of the century. He lectures, conducts clinics and consults with swim clubs, swim federations and swim schools in the USA, UK, Australia, New Zealand, Asia, Scandinavia and Middle East, and is a personal consultant to a number of elite international swimming athletes and their coaches.

Shane Gould

Shane is well-known throughout Australia and wherever people take an interest in swimming. She has three gold, a silver and a bronze from the Munich Olympics 1972, and held all freestyle world records, as well as the 200 Individual medley. She now works with Milt Nelms researching swimming teaching and training methods for kids and young adults.

Chris Martin

Chris have been involved in international swimming for over 20 years. He was on US International teams from 1989 to 1995. He moved to the UK in 1997 and was the head coach of Scotland until 2008. From 2008 until last March he was the Development coach for British Swimming, responsible for the programming and development of the GB Juniors and seniors below the world top 25. In March Chris took a position with the City of Shanghai coaching and developing a group of promising juniors at their training academy

Tracey Malyon-Knott

Safe and inspiring swimming is Tracey's philosophy. She started the first swim school in Norway to establish smaller organized classes with system based programs in Learn to Swim. Tracey has consulted with the Norwegian Swim Federation, Swim clubs and private Swim schools in Scandinavia on their Learn to Swim programs.

Ingegerd Ericsson

Ingegerd is PE teacher, PH D and Senior lecturer in Sport Sciences at Malmö University, Sweden. She will speak about "Motor skills development, observation and training; experiences and results from research in the Bunkeflo project-promoting a healthy lifestyle".

David Candler and Roger Millward

David and Roger are representing Swimming Teachers Association, UK (STA) and the International Federation of Swimming Teachers' Association (IFSTA). David is the STA current President, and Roger is the Chief Executive of STA and the IFSTA. They will speak about Learn to Swim in the UK.

Swedish Center for Aquatic Research

